THE FREEDMAN'S BANK -A LETTER FROM ONE OF THE COMMISSIONERS .- Charles Spencer, late cashier of the Freedman's Savings Bank in this city, has just received the following letter from R. H. T. Lelpold, one of the Freedman's Bank commissioners, in response to inquiries made by him for the information of parties interested in Richmond. Mr. Spencer thinks it will about two or three months before a dividend will be declared. The bank at Washington has now $515,000 in hand, and will pay a dividend when they get $600,000:

Office of the Commissioners of the Freedman's Savings and Trust Company, Washington, D. C., September 6, 1875.—Dear Sir,—* We reply that we have authorized no persons to act for or to represent us in the matter of paying dividends, and that we prefer to deal with the depositors direct, rather than through any self-constituted agents. In fact, we propose to dispense with all agents at the branches, and to pay dividends from this office direct in the following manner-viz.:

When we shall have got in the Treasury of the United States the sum required for the payment of twenty per cent. pro rata-say about six hundred thousand dollars-we shall declare a dividend, and advise depositors accordingly through the public press and by such other means as may suggest themselves to us at 'he proper time. When so declared we shall pay the dividend to depositors, other than those at the Washington branch, by our checks on the Assistant Treasurer of the United States, in New York, drawn to the order of the depositors respectively. To get these checks depositors will have only to send us their pass-books by mail, or through any bank or bankers. Upon receiving the books we shall enter the payment thereon and return them, with the proper check enclosed, to the depositors in such manner as each one may direct. These checks any depositor ought, and no doubt will be able, to get cashed at any bank in your city without cost, and with no other trouble than that attending the necessary

SIX TENEMENTS BURNED .- About 4 o'clock yesterday morning one of the unoccupied at $25. framed tenements in Highland Row, situated on Highland street between Nicholson and Denny streets, Rocketts, was discovered to stealing a lot of picture-frames, &c. be on fire, and before the flames could be arrested six of the row of eighteen, owned by Mr. Hiram W. Tyler, were totally destroyed. Only two of the houses were occupied. The occupants had no intimation of the fire until they felt it dropping upon them in their beds. Their effects, or most of them, were, how-ever, saved. The houses were valued at $3,000, and were not insured. The watersupply was taken from the river, and had to be pumped up a distance of at least one hundred feet before it could be thrown upon the flames. The fire at first appeared to be so serious that the chief engineer directed a second alarm to be turned in, and this brought out steamer A and the truck. The two alarms were sounded from Box 12.

A FALL AND A COINCIDENCE. On Wednesday evening between 7 and 8 o'clock Dr. Peterfield Trent was called in at No. 505 east Marshall street to see a colored girl named Alice Winston, aged six years, who had fallen from a porch fifteen feet from the payement and received severe bruises. No bones were broken. This was the second time this girl had fallen from the same porch, and the second time Dr. Trent had been called in to dress the injuries received by the fall.

DEATH OF "HAGAN'S JOHN."-Mr. John Hagan, or, as he often called himself, "Ha gan's John, of Creek Nation," died at his residence, on Seventeenth street, yesterday morning, after a lingering illness. Deceased was born in this city, of Irish parents, and was a somewhat eccentric character. Many of the defensive works around Richmond were put up under his supervision, though, of course, after plans furnished by the army engineers. In by-gone days Mr. Hagan wielded not a little political influence in Jefferson Ward, and his "proclamations" to his committed to jail. supporters will be remembered by all old citizens.

BURIAL OF MR. THOMAS H. ROBERTS .- The funeral of Mr. Thomas H. Roberts, who was for many years a prominent dry-goods mer-chant of this city, and for a considerable time past in the employ of Levy Brothers, took place yesterday evening from the Second Baptist church. The services were conducted by Rev. Drs. Jeter and Bitting. The church was nearly filled with friends and acquaintances of the deceased, including many merchants. The singing, suited to the solemn and impressive occasion, was of the finest order. "Behold, I'll Show You a Mystery," sung by Mr. Grant, was especially good.

A NEW POSTAL ARRANGEMENT .- The postmaster has determined to have collections made from the letter-box in front of the Dispatch office at the following hours: 6:30 A M., 12:30 P. M., 3:15 P. M., and 7:50 P. M. Letters deposited in this box will reach their destination as early as if carried to the postoffice. A letter-box has also been placed on the lamp-post opposite the old (Main street) office, from which collections will be made nearly as late as from the Dispatch box. This arrangement has been made to accommodate persons passing up and down Main street and who do not wish to go off their course to mail their letters. It will likewise prove a great convenience to the numerous business-men in the neighborhood of Twelfth
